

Arpeta Mukherjee

Senior HR Professional | English Communication Trainer | Learning & Development Specialist | NLP Certified Professional

Professional Summary

A seasoned Human Resources and Learning & Development professional with over 20 years of extensive corporate experience across talent development, employee engagement, capability building, and professional communication training. Currently associated with an organization as a Founding Member in a hybrid work arrangement, which provides the flexibility to dedicate substantial time and commitment to additional professional assignments and training engagements.

Possessing strong English communication skills and a proven track record of designing and delivering structured learning programs, I have successfully conducted training sessions on Business English Communication and Technical English for Engineers across various organizations. My training interventions have been delivered through well-designed curricula, focusing on practical workplace communication, presentation skills, professional writing, interpersonal effectiveness, and technical communication requirements.

A passionate facilitator and coach, I combine HR expertise, adult learning principles, and behavioral development methodologies to create impactful learning experiences that improve communication effectiveness and workplace performance.

Core Competencies

- English Communication Training
- Business English Communication
- Technical English for Engineers
- Learning & Development
- Training Needs Analysis
- Curriculum Design & Development
- Facilitation & Workshop Delivery
- Leadership Development
- Employee Capability Building
- Coaching & Mentoring
- HR Strategy & Operations
- Presentation & Public Speaking Skills
- Behavioral Skills Training
- NLP-Based Communication Techniques

Professional Experience

Founding Member

Saarthiev Mobility Pvt Ltd (Hybrid Work Model)

Present

- Contributing to organizational growth and strategic initiatives as a founding team member.
- Working in a hybrid capacity, enabling effective management of professional commitments while remaining available for training, consulting, and development assignments.
- Supporting people practices, organizational development, and capability-building initiatives.

Senior HR & Learning Professional

Various Organizations

20+ Years of Experience

- Designed and delivered comprehensive Business English Communication programs for professionals across functions and levels.
- Conducted Technical English training programs specifically tailored for engineers and technical teams.
- Developed structured training curricula, learning materials, assessments, and competency-based learning interventions.
- Facilitated workshops on professional communication, workplace etiquette, presentation effectiveness, and stakeholder engagement.
- Led employee development initiatives, coaching programs, and leadership capability-building interventions.
- Collaborated with business leaders to identify skill gaps and implement targeted learning solutions.

Certifications

- Certified Professional in Neuro-Linguistic Programming (NLP)
- Certified in Training Design Program
- Various HR and Learning & Development certifications and professional development programs

Key Strengths

- Excellent command of written and spoken English
- Strong facilitation and training delivery skills
- Ability to engage diverse learner groups
- Curriculum design and instructional development expertise
- Practical corporate experience integrated into learning programs
- Effective coaching, mentoring, and communication enhancement capabilities

Availability

Currently engaged as a Founding Member in a hybrid work model and fully capable of dedicating significant time and effort to additional assignments, training engagements, and communication development initiatives, ensuring meaningful contribution and value creation.